SEEKING A GRANDER HOTEL

Frequent business travellers, known as "road warriors" in hotel jargon because they make more than twenty business trips a year, want greater emphasis on service from hotels before new technological developments such as checking in and out with smart cards. This was one of the central conclusions of the invitation-only seminar on the Hotel of the Future held in London.

"I want a hotel not only to provide consistency of service but also to empower staff to have the authority to solve my problem at the same time," said Ms. Thomas, one of the seminar panel of frequent travelling executives.

Mr. Belington, another "warrior on the road", recalled how he had been horrified by the service at a top hotel in Singapore. "I was charged a hefty deposit when I asked to use a fax in my room and then had to suffer the indignity at check-out of waiting while a hotel employee checked my room to see if the fax was still there before the deposit was returned," he said.

THE HYDE PARK Towers Hotel 41-51 Inverness Terrace, Bayswater, London W2 3JN

Park Hotels have a group of hotels which serve the South of England and the Midlands, including five hotels in London. Our aim is to provide the highest standards of service and hospitality, with the comfort and facilities you would expect of modern luxury hotels, while preserving the traditional character of the properties themselves. You can be sure of a warm and friendly welcome wherever you stay.

Following a multi-million pound refurbishment, The Hyde Park Towers Hotel has been transformed into a luxury business class hotel with every modern amenity.

Ideally located in the heart of the capital on a tree-lined terrace, the hotel is only a few minutes west of Oxford Street and offers easy access to London's major business centers and tourist attractions.

THE BRITISH ON HOLIDAY

Many British people have decided that it is not worth spending money on holiday in Britain because the weather is so unreliable. They prefer to spend their money on a package holiday in southern Europe. A package holiday is a cheap form of group travel. You pay a travel agent a sum of money and he arranges a flight, hotel, food and entertainment. All you need is pocket-money when you get to the foreign country. It is sometimes cheaper to go abroad with a package holiday than to stay in England. In spite of this, seaside holidays in Britain are still the most popular and traditional form of holiday for the majority of British people.

Because Britain is quite a small island, no one lives farther than 75 miles from the sea. As soon as the summer weather begins, thousands of people in cars make their way to the coast. Many parents are willing to sit on crowded beaches, in traffic jams, and sometimes even in bad weather to give their children a seaside holiday. Many of the towns and villages on the south of England are still very beautiful, but oil pollution in the water has become a problem over the last few years.

Michael: I wish people wouldn't go on about their holidays so much. All they talk about is where they went last year and where they are going next year.

Jeffrey: Because they are living more and more in a dream world.

Michael: What do you mean?

Jeffrey: Well, they are not really interested in their jobs so they spend all their time thinking about the two or three weeks they have off.

Michael: I still don't see what's wrong with that.

Jeffrey: Well I do. People should live life as it is.

Michael: You are taking it a bit seriously, aren't you? Holidays are only relaxation.

TRAVELLING BY TRAIN IN BRITAIN (PART 1)

British Rail offers high standards of fast, comfortable and easy travel. The Intercity network services operate frequently (hourly or better on many routes). New Intercity 225 services link London with Yorkshire, the North East and the east coast of Scotland in record time. It is now possible to travel from London King's Cross to Edinburgh in as little as 4 hours 05 minutes.

The most long-distance trains seats can be reserved in advance, but it is rarely necessary except during holiday periods. Reserve when you get to Britain.

The long-distance trains have both first and standard (economy) class. Intercity trains usually have a restaurant and/or buffet car, hot meals, light snacks and drinks. Pullman trains offer luxury to the main business centers in Britain, with meal service at your seats available to first class ticket holders. Hundreds of stations also have cafes.

TRAVELLING BY AIR

There are four airports in London: Heathrow in the west, Gatwick in the south, Stansted in the north and the city airport in the City of London. Heathrow is the busiest international airport in the world with more than 1000 planes taking off and landing every day. They carry over a hundred thousand people to and from 85 countries. Heathrow airport opened on the 1st of January 1946.

If you are travelling into London, simply catch a Fast Train from Heathrow Junction outside your arrival terminal. You should look out for the posters and bus information boards. The Fast Train service uses brand new, purpose-built trains which feature air-conditioning, ergonomically designed seating, generous luggage space, an on board information system and airline-style customer service. Tickets are available at the ticket offices at Paddington railway station, and at other outlets in London, including Rail, speed link and selected Bureaux de Change.

AIRPORT FORMALITIES

According to the international standards passengers are to arrive at the airport two hours before departure time on international flights and domestic flights. The reason is that passengers should have enough time to complete all necessary airport formalities.

At the airport passengers should check the time of the flight to make sure that it is not delayed, cancelled, or altered. This information is available on the flight information display or at the inquiry office.

Passengers are to fill in customs declarations in one of the international languages or in the language of the country they depart from. They go to the Customs for an examination of their luggage. In some cases the Customs officer may ask you to open your bags and suitcases for inspection. This is done in order to prevent smuggling.

– Well, any more news about our holiday prospects?

– Yes, darling. There's a choice between a trip down the Volga on a first-class river motorvessel and a Black Sea cruise on a luxury liner.

– Sounds interesting, doesn't it? But I must say it's a difficult choice. Both trips have their attractions.

- But I thought you were all for a Black Sea cruise this year?
- You must agree there's a lot to be said for a Volga trip too. Besides being a very restful holiday it would give us an opportunity to see the new constructions all down the river.
- I agree, that's very attractive. But I'm more in favour of the Black Sea. 2. Прочитайте и переведите текст профессиональной направленности: Adventure

Adventure is necessary to us all. It keeps us from growing stale and old; it stimulates our imagination, it gives us that movement and change which are necessary to our well-being.

One of the objects of travel is to go in search of beauty. The beauty-spots of the world are magnets which draw pilgrims year after year. Yet even more valuable to the traveller is the knowledge which he gets of his fellow men by going among people of different enthusiasms. It is the story of the stay-at-home who is always ready to call someone else "queer" because his ways are a little different; the much travelled man has sympathy with all sorts of ways and is therefore much more likely to be able to understand another point of view than his own. Frequent travel to other countries by all sorts and conditions of men and women would be the best possible insurance against war. For when you have stayed in the homes of people of other nations and grown to like them and to understand their ways you will have the greatest antipathy for fighting against them.

Unforgettable journey

Almost everyone likes to travel. Some people like travelling by air. As for me, I'm afraid of this way of journey. But I want to try it in my future life.

Some people like the sea. You can feel the deck of the boat under your feet, the cry of seagulls and of course to feel the fresh sea wind. Once I had a cruise by boat. I liked it because it was very amusing and thrilling. We were lucky that the weather was fine and the water wasn't rough.

I know many people who prefer travelling on foot or hitch-hiking. So do I. You leave the dull broad highway and go along a narrow road where cars can't go. You see all the beauty of country, a lot of animals living in the forests, many young birds in their nests, the wild flowers and a lot of original and unique scenery and people.

For some people there is nothing like travel by train. Travelling by train we can have comfort, speed and many other things combined. Some of us like to have a meal in the dining-car, a wonderful bed.

Understanding through the travelling

Millions of people all over the world spend their holidays travelling. They travel to see other continents, modern cities and the ruins of ancient towns, they travel to enjoy picturesque places, or just for a change of scene. It's always interesting to discover new things, different ways of life, to meet different people, to try different food, to listen to different musical rhythms.

Those who live in the country like to go to a big city and spend their time visiting museums and art galleries, looking at shop windows and dining at exotic restaurants. City-dwellers usually like a quiet holiday by the sea or in the mountains, with nothing to do but walk and bathe and laze in the sun.

Most travelers and holiday-makers take a camera with them and take pictures of everything that interests them - the sights of a city, old churches and castles, views of mountains, lakes, valleys, plains, waterfalls, forests; different kinds of trees, flowers and plants, animals and birds. Later, perhaps years later, they will be reminded by the photos of the happy time they have had.

Business trips

Never before in the history of the world have businessmen traveled as much as they do today. It is not surprising because we are living in a world of growing international trade and expanding economic and technical cooperation. Though it is fascinating for tourist travelling, it has become the most tiring of all occupations for many businessmen and experts. Therefore, choosing a comfortable hotel to stay at is a matter of big importance. There are plenty of good hotels, motels and guest houses in the world, which are conveniently located in major business centers.

Many developing countries, such as India, Egypt, Nigeria, Libya, etc have excellent hotels. Their numerous facilities include both large and small cocktail bars, barber's shops and conference halls equipped with simultaneous, multilingual translation systems. There are parking areas which can accommodate a lot of cars. It might be useful for travelling businessmen and tourists to know that tailor shops, shoe repair shops, laundry and dry cleaning services are available for guests

Hotel: advantages and disadvantages

It's a well-known fact that hotels nowadays play a big role. Every year more and more new hotels are opened. Sometimes it is even difficult to decide which to choose while traveling. There are luxury hotels, which seem to be expensive, b & b hotels, where you will get only breakfasts and a place to sleep, youth hostels, where you meant to serve everything yourself and many other places to stay in. Some people enjoy staying in a hotel. Sure, on the one hand there are a lot of advantages in it. To begin with, it's convenient. You have a chance to make a telephone call and reserve any room you want in a good time, to be confident by your arrival. Besides, you don't need to serve yourself, everything will be done by the hotel staff, I find it wonderful. More than that, I do like that in the hotel you can be offered some interesting excursions and you can be sure that they are safe because the hotel is responsible for every offer.

But on the other hand there are still some disadvantages in staying in a hotel. First of all, the service can be poor and slowly, for this reason you can be late for a business meeting or a friends' party, I find it extremely disappointing. Second, the food can be too salty, overcooked and etc....spoiled.

International tourism

Going abroad nowadays is a usual thing for many families. Some people, however, stay unsatisfied with the time they have spent in a foreign country. What are the advantages and disadvantages of travelling abroad or is it worth staying at home?

One of the main advantages is the experience you get from being in a foreign country. While being abroad you have the opportunity to practise the language and socialise with citizens of the country you visit. This is especially beneficial if your occupation is connected with a foreign language. Furthermore, you get acquainted with a new place and that makes you relax and forget about your routine life. On the other hand, the pretravelling process might be very depressing because of all the documents you should collect in order to enter the chosen country. What is more, you can get into trouble if you are not acquainted with the laws of the country you want to visit. What you are used to doing at home is not always normal for foreigners.
