Промежуточная аттестация освоенных умений и усвоенных знаний по дисциплине осуществляется во время дифференцированного зачета. Условием допуска к дифференцированному зачету является положительная текущая аттестация по практическим работам дисциплины, ключевым теоретическим вопросам дисциплины.

Дифференцированный зачет проводится по разработанным заданиям для итоговой аттестации. К критериям оценки уровня подготовки обучающегося относятся:

- уровень освоения обучающимися материала, предусмотренного учебной программой по дисциплине;
- умения обучающимся использовать теоретические знания при выполнении практических заданий;
- уровень сформированности общих и профессиональных компетенций;

– обоснованность, четкость, краткость изложения ответа при соблюдении принципа полноты его содержания.

Дополнительным критерием оценки уровня подготовки обучающегося может являться результат исследовательской, проектной деятельности.

При проведении дифференцированного зачета по учебной дисциплине уровень подготовки обучающихся оценивается в баллах: «5» («отлично»), «4» («хорошо»), «3» («удовлетворительно»), «2» («неудовлетворительно»).

Оценка «отлично» выставляется обучающемуся, проявившему всесторонние и глубокие знания программного материала и дополнительной литературы, а также творческие способности в понимании, изложении и практическом использовании материала.

Оценка «хорошо» ставится обучающемуся, проявившему полное знание программного материала, освоившему основную рекомендательную литературу, показавшему стабильный характер знаний и умений и способному к их самостоятельному применению и обновлению в ходе последующего обучения и практической деятельности.

Оценка «неудовлетворительно» ставится обучающемуся, обнаружившему существенные пробелы в знании основного программного материала, допустившему принципиальные ошибки при применении теоретических знаний, которые не позволяют ему продолжить обучение или приступить к практической деятельности без дополнительной подготовки по данной дисциплине.

Camping

Camping is an outdoor recreational activity involving spending nights in a tent, or a vehicle at a campsite. The purpose of camping is to get away from civilization and to enjoy nature. Campers differ from survivalist campers who set off with little more than their boots to those who arrive in large vehicles equipped with their own electricity, heat, and furniture. Camping as a recreational activity became popular in the early 20th century. It is a response to the increasing urbanization.

Camping is connected very often with other activities, such as fishing, swimming or hiking. National parks and other public natural areas are popular campsites. Camping is often restricted by law in order to prevent campers from damaging the environment. Most campers prefer to use sites with special facilities such as fire rings, bathrooms and utilities. Usually campsites range from a bare piece of grass to a level paved area with sewer and electricity. These are often designated for the use by handicapped campers.

Tent camping commonly employs an automobile to transport equipment to a campground, although sometimes a pack animal, a boat or a plane may be used. Some people camp with tents because they feel that camping with a trailer or motor home detracts from the experience of being out-of-doors.

Tent camping is popular with young families. Children enjoy camping. Tent camping sites are often less expensive than campsites with full facilities. Most of them allow direct access by car. Some sites can be reached only by a brief walk, but do not require full backpacking equipment.

Recreational vehicles are more like wheeled houses. Some of them cost more than houses, featuring air conditioning, bathrooms, kitchens, showers, satellite TV and even Internet connections. RV campers often choose these devices because they consider tent camping uncomfortable and too much work. In the United States, many campgrounds offer "hookups" where motor homes are supplied with electricity, water and sewer services. Some retirees in the U.S. sell their homes and lead a nomadic lifestyle in their RVs.

Backpacking is a variety of tent camping. Backpackers use special lightweight and portable equipment that can be carried long distances on foot. They hike across the land, camping at remote spots. Backpacking equipment costs more than that for car camping, but much less than a trailer or motor home.

Survivalist campers learn the skills to survive out-of-doors in any situation. This activity may require skills in obtaining food from the wild, emergency medical treatments, orienteering, and pioneering.

Many children are sent to camp for periods during the summer. Some camps are operated by religious institutions, and children's camps may be specifically educational. Hunting camps are common in some regions.

Much of the needed camping equipment is usually available at home, like dishes, pots and pans. But many people try to use the equipment better tailored to camping. Lists of what to take are available in camping books.

TOURISM DEVELOPMENT IN THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

Now tourist industry is one of the most dynamically developing branches of the world economy. According to the World Tourist Organization (WTO), since 1998 tourism occupies the first place in the world goods and services export, which surpasses automobile industry, chemical products manufacturing, food products manufacturing and fuel manufacturing. Medium tourism growth rate came to 7 % a year during the period from 1950 to 1999, which is much higher than annual growth rate of the world economy on the whole. According to WTO predictions the growth rate of tourism will remain the same in the nearest decades.

However despite of high tourist potential, the Russian Federation holds an insignificant place on the world tourist market. It accounts about 1 % of the world tourist flow. According to WTO estimates, Russia could potentially accept up to 40 million of foreign tourists a year. Today, however, the number of foreign guests visiting Russia for business, tourist and personal purposes comes to only 7.4 million people.

Analysis of the present state of domestic tourism and the level of its development is insufficient by both qualitative and quantitative characteristics.

Presently the main factors delaying development of tourism in Russian are: the image of Russia as an unfavorable country for tourism which is created by certain foreign as well as domestic mass media; undeveloped tourist infrastructure, small quality of hotel facilities; lack of conditions favorable for investments in tourist infrastructure; lack of state non-commercial advertisement of the country's tourist resources abroad; low services quality in all sectors of tourist industry due to low level of personnel training and lack of working experience in market economy conditions; discrepancy of price and quality of hotel allocations. The main task of tourism development in the Russian Federation is formation of modern marketing strategy promoting tourist product on both domestic and international markets.

Development and promotion of tourism in Russia require the followings: information and advertisement programs on entry and domestic tourism, which includes creation of television and radio programs for Russia and foreign countries; issuing of catalogues, booklets, posters, maps and other advertisement and information printing products; information centers network for foreign and Russian tourists in places of the biggest tourist flow concentration; introductory trips around Russia's tourist centers for foreign journalists; presentation of Russia's traveling resources in the main countries directing tourists to Russia.

Effective tourism development will allow to increase dramatically the flow of foreign tourists coming to Russia and foreign currency inflow into the country's economy.

Priority support of tourism industry development will provide more effective usage of human, informational, material and other resources; it will increase the rate of employment among population and influence to the social and economic development of the country.

I. Say whether the following statements are true or false:

1. Tourist industry is the fastest developing industry in the world economy.

5. Foreign guests come to Russia for business, tourist and personal purposes.
6. Certain mass media create an unattractive image of Russia.
7. There are many conditions favorable for investments in tourist infrastructure.

5. Does Russia have high tourist potential?
6. How many tourists could Russia accept a year?
7. What is the main task of tourism development in Russia?
8. What do development and promotion of tourism in Russia require?

III. Match the ways of tourism promotion from the left column and the definitions from the right column:

направленности:SEEKING A GRANDER HOTEL

Frequent business travellers, known as "road warriors" in hotel jargon because they make more than twenty business trips a year, want greater emphasis on service from hotels before new technological developments such as checking in and out with smart cards. This was one of the central conclusions of the invitation-only seminar on the Hotel of the Future held in London.

"I want a hotel not only to provide consistency of service but also to empower staff to have the authority to solve my problem at the same time," said Ms. Thomas, one of the seminar panel of frequent travelling executives.

Mr. Belington, another "warrior on the road", recalled how he had been horrified by the service at a top hotel in Singapore. "I was charged a hefty deposit when I asked to use a fax in my room and then had to suffer the indignity at check-out of waiting while a hotel employee checked my room to see if the fax was still there before the deposit was returned," he said.

направленности: THE BRITISH ON HOLIDAY

Many British people have decided that it is not worth spending money on holiday in Britain because the weather is so unreliable. They prefer to spend their money on a package holiday in southern Europe. A package holiday is a cheap form of group travel. You pay a travel agent a sum of money and he arranges a flight, hotel, food and entertainment. All you need is pocket- money when you get to the foreign country. It is sometimes cheaper to go abroad with a package holiday than to stay in England. In spite of this, seaside holidays in Britain are still the most popular and traditional form of holiday for the majority of British people.

Because Britain is quite a small island, no one lives farther than 75 miles from the sea. As soon as the summer weather begins, thousands of people in cars make their way to the coast. Many parents are willing to sit on crowded beaches, in traffic jams, and sometimes even in bad weather to give their children a seaside holiday. Many of the towns and villages on the south of England are still very beautiful, but oil pollution in the water has become a problem over the last few years.

Michael: What do you mean?

Jeffrey: Well, they are not really interested in their jobs so they spend all their time thinking about the two or three weeks they have off.

Michael: I still don't see what's wrong with that. Jeffrey: Well I do. People should live life as it is.

Michael: You are taking it a bit seriously, aren't you? Holidays are only relaxation.

There are four airports in London: Heathrow in the west, Gatwick in the south,

They carry over a hundred thousand people to and from 85 countries. Heathrow airport opened on the 1st of January 1946.

If you are travelling into London, simply catch a Fast Train from Heathrow Junction outside your arrival terminal. You should look out for the posters and bus information boards. The Fast Train service uses brand new, purpose-built trains which feature air-conditioning, ergonomically designed seating, generous luggage space, an on board information system and airline-style customer service. According to the international standards passengers are to arrive at the airport two hours before departure time on international flights and domestic flights. The reason is that passengers should have enough time to complete all necessary airport formalities.

At the airport passengers should check the time of the flight to make sure that it is not delayed, cancelled, or altered. This information is available on the flight information display or at the inquiry office.

Passengers are to fill in customs declarations in one of the international languages or in the language of the country they depart from. They go to the Customs for an examination of their luggage. In some cases the Customs officer may ask you to open your bags and suitcases for inspection. This is done in order to prevent smuggling.

Adventure

Adventure is necessary to us all. It keeps us from growing stale and old; it stimulates our imagination, it gives us that movement and change which are necessary to our well-being. One of the objects of travel is to go in search of beauty.

The beauty-spots of the world are magnets which draw pilgrims year after year. Yet even more valuable to the traveller is the knowledge which he gets of his fellow men by going among people of different enthusiasms. It is the story of the stay-at-home who is always ready to call someone else "queer" because his ways are a little different; the much travelled man has sympathy with all sorts of ways and is therefore much more likely to be able to understand another point of view than his own. Frequent travel to other countries by all sorts and conditions of men and women would be the best possible insurance against war. For when you have stayed in the homes of people of other nations and grown to like them and to understand their ways you will have the greatest antipathy for fighting against them.

Almost everyone likes to travel. Some people like travelling by air. As for me, I'm afraid of this way of journey. But I want to try it in my future life.

Some people like the sea. You can feel the deck of the boat under your feet, the cry of sea-gulls and of course to feel the fresh sea wind. Once I had a cruise by boat. I liked it because it was very amusing and thrilling. We were lucky that the weather was fine and the water wasn't rough. I know many people who prefer travelling on foot or hitch-hiking. So do I. You leave the dull broad highway and go along a narrow road where cars can't go. You see all the beauty of country, a lot of animals living in the forests, many young birds in their nests, the wild flowers and a lot of original and unique scenery and people.

For some people there is nothing like travel by train. Travelling by train we can have comfort, speed and many other things combined. Some of us like to have a meal in the dining-car, a wonderful bed.

Understanding through the travelling

Millions of people all over the world spend their holidays travelling. They travel to see other continents, modern cities and the ruins of ancient towns, they travel to enjoy picturesque places, or just for a change of scene. It's always interesting to discover new things, different ways of life, to meet different people, to try different food, to listen to different musical rhythms.

Those who live in the country like to go to a big city and spend their time visiting museums and art galleries, looking at shop windows and dining at exotic restaurants. City-dwellers usually like a quiet holiday by the sea or in the mountains, with nothing to do but walk and bathe and laze in the sun.

Most travelers and holiday-makers take a camera with them and take pictures of everything that interests them - the sights of a city, old churches and castles, views of mountains, lakes, valleys, plains, waterfalls, forests; different kinds of trees, flowers and plants, animals and birds. Later, perhaps years later, they will be reminded by the photos of the happy time they have had.

Though it is fascinating for tourist travelling, it has become the most tiring of all occupations for many businessmen and experts. Therefore, choosing a comfortable hotel to stay at is a matter of big importance. There are plenty of good hotels, motels and guest houses in the world, which are conveniently located in major business centers.

Many developing countries, such as India, Egypt, Nigeria, Lybia, etc have excellent hotels. Their numerous facilities include both large and small cocktail bars, barber's shops and conference halls equipped with simultaneous, multilingual translation systems. There are parking areas which can accomodate a lot of cars. It's a well-known fact that hotels nowadays play a big role. Every year more and more new hotels are opened. Sometimes it is even difficult to decide which to choose while traveling. There are luxury hotels, which seem to be expensive, b & b hotels, where you will get only breakfasts and a place to sleep, youth hostels, where you meant to serve everything yourself and many other places to stay in. Some people enjoy staying in a hotel. Sure, on the one hand there are a lot of advantages in it. To begin with, it's convenient. You have a chance to make a telephone call and reserve any room you want in a good time, to be confident by your arrival.

Besides, you don't need to serve yourself, everything will be done by the hotel staff, I find it wonderful. More than that, I do like that in the hotel you can be offered some interesting excursions and you can be sure that they are safe because the hotel is responsible for every offer. But on the other hand there are still some disadvantages in staying in a hotel. First of all, the service can be poor and slowly, for this reason you can be late for a business meeting or a friends' party, I find it extremely disappointing. International tourism Going abroad nowadays is a usual thing for many families. Some people, however, stay unsatisfied with the time they have spent in a foreign country. What are the advantaged and disadvantages of travelling abroad or is it worth staying at home?

One of the main advantages is the experiance you get from being in a foreign country. While being abroad you have the opportunity to pracrise the language and socialise with citizens of the country you visit. This is especially beneficial if your occupation is connected with a foreign language. Furthermore, you get acquainted with a new place and that makes you relax and forget about your routine life. On the other hand, pretravelling process might be very depressing because of all the documents you should collect in order to enter the chosen country. What is more, you can get into trouble if you are not acquainted with the laws of the country you want to visit. What you are used to doing at home is not always normal for foreigners.
